How to Cite a Database

- ◆ You have located an article in the Literature Resource Center (Gale database) that you would like to cite and you have the full text article open on your computer screen.

- ◆ Click on the "Citation Tools" link in the box.
